Sue's Life Remembered

Sue Hurd's Childhood & Early Adulthood

Sue, Pam & Tom

Sue grew up in Waterford, Michigan. She was the second of four children. Her older brother was Tom Broders, younger sister Pam Halverson, and youngest brother Tim Broders. Sue grew up in a lively home with lots of activity, babysitting siblings and pet cats.

Sue graduated from Waterford High School, and studied to become a registered nurse. After high school Sue moved to Ann Arbor Michigan. Sue worked as an emergency nurse, until she met Jim and decided to start her family together.

Raising a Family of Her Own

After years of dating, Sue and Jim fell in love. On January 18, 1969, Sue and Jim were married in Pontiac, Michigan. Sue and Jim had two wonderful sons, Brandt Hurd (Austin, TX), and Brian Hurd (Clarkston, MI). Sue moved around the country with Jim's job at General Motors, they lived in Kansas, Texas, Oregon, Ohio, Illinois and Michigan. She was always there for her family, helping with sports, school, kid car accidents and cooking wonderful beef stroganoff. Her boys both finished college and have successful careers in business.

Sue's Hobbies and Retirement Life

Having traveled around the country and world during their working years, Sue and Jim decided to retire in their favorite place on earth: Oregon.

Sue loved gardening, making beautiful bead jewelry, puzzles and playing any game with friends and family. Sue was particularly fond of playing bridge with the ladies of Shadow Hills. Her other passions included Carousel horse collecting and her beloved cats. Sue was a wonderful grandmother to five grandchildren Frank-Paul, Vinny, Tyler, Katelynn and Brody.
